Genoa, July 19. N. S.

OUR Advices, by a Veſſel which came hither in nine Days from Barcelona import, that a Squadron of Engliſh and Dutch Ships arriv'd there the 5th Inſtant from Lisbon, with new Supplies of Men and Mony. The Campaign is not yet open'd in Catalonia, and it is thought the exceſſive Heats will prevent both Armies from undertaking any Enterprize of Conſequence this Seaſon. The Miquilets continue their Incurſions with much Succeſs, and give great Diſturbance to the Forces of the Duke of Anjou; inſomuch that the Enemy have been oblig'd to poſt Troops at Tervel, and other Places, in order to reſtrain them. They write from Rome that Seignior Cuſani, Nuncio in ordinary to the Court of France, is recall'd from that Employment, the French King having expreſt a diſlike to his Perſon, upon a Pretence that being his Catholick Majeſty's Subject, he is devoted to his Intereſts. Seignior Aldobrandino, Auditor of the Rota for the Province of Bologna is appointed to ſucceed him, and it is ſaid Seignior Cuſani will be prefer'd to the Biſhoprick of Pavia.

Lisbon, July 24. N. S. The exceſſive Heats having oblig'd our Generals to ſend the Forces into Quarters of Refreſhment, the Earl of Portmore is come hither, in order to concert the neceſſary Meaſures for opening the Campaign as ſoon as the Seaſon will permit the Army to return into the Field. The Braſil Fleet is ready to put to Sea, and will ſail with the firſt Wind that ſhall offer after the 28th inſtant. The Queen of Portugal being with Child, the Phyſicians have adviſ'd her Majeſty to bleed by way of Prevention.

Hamburgh, July 28. N. S. The Swedes being apprehenſive that the King of Denmark's Intentions are to penetrate into the Dutchy of Breme, have reinforc'd all the Garriſons in that Country, and poſted ſome regular Troops, and great Numbers of the Militia on the Banks of the Elbe for their better Security; they have likewiſe commanded all the Peaſants that are capable of bearing Arms, to arm themſelves, in order to oppoſe the Danes, and for their Encouragement, have promis'd to ſuch as ſhall behave themſelves well on this occaſion, an Exemption from all Taxes for four Years. The King of Denmark continues at preſent at Rendsbourg, but it is ſaid he will ſpeedily remove to the Caſtle of Reynbeck, where the Apartments have been fitted up for his Majeſty's Accommodation. The Danes are daily baking great Stores of bread at Altena, and General Schultz has been ſent hither to demand a certain quantity of Beer and Hay for the Service of the Army, which we hear has been readily granted by our Magiſtrates. The Duke Adminiſtrator of Holſtein Gottorp has been twice at Rendsbourg to wait on the King, where he was receiv'd with particular Marks of Reſpect by his Majeſty. The Queen Dowager of Denmark is expected ſpeedily at Gluckſtat, from whence her Majeſty propoſeth to proceed through the County of Oldenburgh, to the Court of her Brother the Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel.

Frankfort, July 29. N. S. On the 27th Inſtant Monſieur Consbroech, Aulic Counſellor, and ſecret Referendary of the Empire, being appointed one of the Ambaſſadors from the Kingdom of Bohemia at the enſuing Election, arriv'd here from Vienna. His Collegues are Count Windiſgratz, and Count Kinsky the younger, Vice-Chancellor of Bohemia, who are likewiſe expected very ſpeedily. They write from Coblentz, That the Elector of Treves his Baggage was to ſet out from thence for this Place on the 3d of the next Month, and that his Electoral Highneſs propos'd to follow in Perſon on the 9th. Yeſterday the Prince of Savoy went from hence, in order to put himſelf at the Head of the Army of the Empire, which is at preſent encamp'd at Mulhburg, and has been join'd by the Forces detach'd from Flanders, under the Command of the Count de Vehlen. On the 24th Inſtant twelve Squadrons of the Enemies Forces were attack'd in the Neighbourhood of Landau, by a Party from that Garriſon, who oblig'd 'em to retire with great Loſs. They write from Vienna, that two Regiments of Horſe have been order'd to march out of Hungary, and join the Troops appointed to preſerve the Neutrality of the Empire, that are aſſembling in Sileſia. Our Letters from Frankfort on the Oder adviſe, That the Marquis de Langallerie, who ſome time ſince quitted the French Service, and enter'd into that of the King of Poland, made a publick Abjuration of the Romiſh Religion on the 19th Inſtant, in the Preſence of a numerous Aſſembly in that City.

Hague Auguſt 4th, N. S. The States of Holland having reſolv'd in their laſt Aſſembly to prohibit all Commerce with France, are adjourn'd 'till Friday next, at which time they are to regulate ſeveral Matters relating to the ſaid Prohibition, and prepare their Reſolution, to be preſented to the States General for their Approbation. The Conditions of the late Agreement with the King of Pruſſia are not yet generally known, but it is ſaid they are ſuch as have given his Majeſty entire Satisfaction, and are to ſubſiſt 'till the end of ſix Months after the Princeſs Dowager of Naſſau ſhall be deliver'd; before the expiration of which Term, it is expected that the Matters in diſpute will be brought to a final Accommodation. Our Letters from Paris adviſe, that the Duke of Noailles was ſpeedily expected at Corella, from whence they write, that the Dutcheſs of Anjou was recover'd of her late Indiſpoſition. The Duke of Vendome is ſet out from Lerida for the Army, which ſeems not in a Condition to undertake any thing of Moment this Campaign. Theſe Letters add that eight Squadrons of the French Troops have been detach'd from Rouſſillon, and are marching into Dauphine. The French are fitting out ſome of Men of War, and ſeveral Frigats at Rochfort and Dunkirk, but it is thought thoſe Ships will not be in a Condition to put to Sea in ſome time for want of Men. The Train of heavy Artillery, belonging to the Daniſh Forces, arriv'd near Kiel, in the Dutchy of Holſtein
